

New York State Rabbit & Cavy Association Royalty/ Skillathon Contest Application

(rev. 2017)

Purpose for Participation

The Royalty Contest as well as Individual Education knowledge contests are meant to not only be a platform in which youth can display their skills and knowledge on the hobby but also meant to challenge the youth who participate to strive for their own personal goal of excellence. It is an opportunity for the youth to test their knowledge and expand upon it. The youth who participate in these contests are the pride of the New York State Association as well as ARBA. The youth who choose to participate in these contests in addition to the contests themselves are held with great respect and honor.
